THE MCKENDREAN 1945

15242

A YEAR

For more than one hundred seventeen years McKendree College has stood on the "Old Hill" as a living symbol of Christian education, doing its utmost to train young men and women to be of greatest service to God and their fellowmen. Each spring sees another class sent forth with a liberal arts education to be of service in the field to which they are best suited.

But a liberal arts education is not all work. McKendree also teaches brotherhood—not in classes, but through living together like brothers, all working together for the same cause, and each generously sharing his personality with others about him. The leadership and participation in extra-curricular activities enables all young men and women to be of most service to their community, and the "family" atmosphere on the campus inspires them to live peacefully and happily with their families and friends as they go through life, in true McKendree fashion.

GUTEKUNSTS

For the past three years, Mr. and Mrs. Gutekunst have diligently striven to keep McKendree going forward in war, as in peace. They are always on hand when something needs to be done, and are always deeply interested in cooperating with the students in anything they undertake. It has been their constant supervision and cooperation that has made possible the sending of Reviews to all McKendree servicemen, both at home and abroad. Without their support there would have been no annual.

It is to these two fine Christian leaders, that we dedicate our 1945 McKendrean.

SIGMA ZETA

SIGMA ZETA

The Sigma Zeta honorary science society is a national organization whose purpose is to encourage scientific study and to recognize students of high scholarship in the natural sciences and mathematics. The Beta chapter at McKendree College was organized in 1926.

The officers for 1944-45 were: president, first semester, Prof. Helmut C. Gutekunst; second semester, Frank M. Snyder; recorder-treasurer, Dean C. J. Stowell. Other members are Dr. H. P. K. Agersborg, Dr. E. R. Spencer, Mildred Joseph and Thomas Gordon (graduated September, 1944).

SIGMA TAU DELTA

In its ninth year, Sigma Tau Delta is maintaining its place on the campus as one of the leading honorary fraternities. Beginning the year with two members, this group added five more to its number.

The monthly meetings have been used for varied purposes: to study classic and contemporary literature, and to give opportunity for self-expression through writing. One meeting the group attended Ibsen's "A Doll's House" in St. Louis.

KAPPA CHI

"Kappa Chi" is a national fraternity which had its beginning in Evansville College in 1928. At that time it was known as the "Double Alpha Club." In 1936, the society was re-organized under the name of "Kappa Chi."

On October 30, 1944, "Kappa Chi" National Fraternity was organized on the McKendree College Campus by its sponsor, Reverend F. C. Stelzriede. The officers elected were: Roy McGrath, president; Keith Bruning, vice-president; Peter Notaras, secretary-treasurer; and Cyril Jackson, marshal.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

The honorary dramatic society of McKendree's campus is the Alpha Theta Chapter of Alpha Psi Omega.

The list of activities includes a trip to the Golden Rod Showboat in St. Louis, the sponsoring of the May Fete, and an outing at the end of the year.

The list of officers for the year were: president, Peter Notaras; vice-president, Bonny Stelzriede; and secretary-treasurer, Flossie Hortin. Mrs. Robert Welch and the Reverend Mr. F. C. Stelzriede were faculty sponsors.

PLATONIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

P-L-A-T-O—the loudest yell heard every Monday evening

This year, Plato started with ten members—a bit low in quantity, but extremely high in quality.

Plato has been through the thick and thin of things during the past year. Seemingly, all bad things turn out humorous. We won't forget those urchins from the girls' dormitory who spoiled the refreshments at Plato's open session. Excitement and words flowed freely.

The members of Plato are proud of its past, and hopeful of its future.

PHILOSOPHIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Philo started its 107th year with four members but it had taken in five new members before Thanksgiving. Philo met every Monday at 12:10 P. M. It has twenty-eight members in the service of their country. There is an oratorical contest in Philo every year.

The officers of Philo are: president, Ira Thetford; vice-president, Cyril Jackson; first critic, A. J. Shields; second critic, Charles Ellis; sergeant-at-arms, Cyril Jackson; recording secretary, Frederick Brink; corresponding secretary, Marvin Friesner; and treasurer, Grant Hartman.

STUDENT FACULTY COUNCIL

STUDENT-FACULTY COUNCIL

The Student-Faculty Council is important in promoting democratic living and thinking on the campus. Requests of the students and faculty alike are presented to the Council for discussion and action, hence to the faculty and student body to be passed upon or rejected.

Members of the Council consist of six faculty members appointed by President Yost and six students elected from the student body, one representing the Lebanonites, one the commuters, and one from each dormitory.

Chairman: Dr. C. R. Yost; secretaries: Bergman (1), Bruning (2).

CLIONIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Each Monday evening the halls of the Chapel resound with the shout, C-L-I-O-, Clio, as the girls of McKendree come together for another regular literary society meeting. Some sessions are serious and some are silly, but this one hour each week is looked forward to by every member of the Clinonian Literary Society.

Presidents: Virginia Phillips, Ruth Mary Koerber, Edna Kampmeyer, and Shirley Bergman.

YMCA

The Young Men's Christian Association met every Wednesday night. The assistant regional secretary spoke to one of the combined sessions. They also helped in the Christmas program planned by the music department. They were instrumental in bringing two outside speakers for combined sessions.

The officers for the year were: president, Peter Notaras; vice-president, Robert Stadge; chaplain, Billy Hahs; program chairman, Warren Clark, social chairman, Roy McGrath; secretary-treasurer, Harry Olin; pianist, Don Broadway, and faculty sponsor, the Reverend F. C. Stelzriede.

YWCA

As special features in our weekly worship and discussion programs we have had a Scott Field Glee Club, a Negro Chorus, a National "Y" representative, and other outside speakers and guests.

The YWCA sent delegates to the Area Conference at Galesburg, Illinois, and visited neighboring churches, providing the programs for the Sunday Evening services. We cooperated with the YMCA in redecorating the College Bookstore, entertained soldiers from Scott Field and assisted with the annual Christmas program besides continuing our work as a participating YWCA.

Mrs. C. J. Stowell is our sponsor.

GIRLS' SEXTETTE

As in the past several years the Girls' Sextette has provided music for special school occasions and has represented the college in outside communities upon special request.

Any regular college woman student is eligible to become a member of the sextette but the final decision for membership is left to the director, Miss Eula Smith, and depends on the student's general music ability.

Six melodious girls' voices have blended together this past year for enjoyment and performance.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB AND CHAPEL CHOIR

In an adjustment of choral work, the accelerated college program, and the war situation the Chapel Choir and the Girls' Glee Club have been combined. The Chapel Choir is made up of mixed voices and the group has presented special numbers for our chapel services.

With the aid of the director these groups have maintained a high standard of work and with the assistance of the YWCA and the YMCA was very successful in presenting the Christmas program.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SOCIETY

This new organization, established in 1943 on our campus, has shown much progress. Its membership, which has increased during the past year, is limited to students of foreign language. The society is designed to promote an international understanding and good will among the students of allied countries. Letters of French and Spanish were received as well as English.

Highlight of the year was the annual party held at the home of Mrs. H. C. Gutekunst, sponsor and organizer of the group.

Officers: Wyvona Luman, president; Edna Kampmeyer, vice-president; and Estelle Waggoner, secretary-treasurer.

BIOLOGY CLUB

The purpose of the Biology Club, which was organized this year, is to promote nature study and to take part in the highway beautification of Illinois.

The membership consists not only of majors or minors in biology, but also other students interested in the work.

The following served as officers during the past year: Mildred Joseph, president; A. J. Shields, vice-president; Donna Sanker, secretary-treasurer; Louis Purcell, sergeant-at-arms; Dr. H. P. K. Agersborg, sponsor.

BIOLOGY CLUB

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Women's Athletic Association was re-organized on the campus this fall with twelve new members. The purpose of this organization is to encourage healthful living and good will and fellowship among the students.

A good time was had by all at the Valentine's skating party at Troy, sponsored by the W. A. A.

At the time this annual went to press, the W. A. A. was planning a wiener roast and several other social activities.

"M" CLUB

After being temporarily discontinued, the "M" Club was reorganized last fall. Inasmuch as the membership is quite low, a greater number in the near future is expected.

Although the "M" Club has not been too active during the past year, it sponsored, quite proudly, the election of the Home-coming Queen.

The members of the "M" Club are proud of that organization, for it represents the "Spirit of Athletics" on the campus. Membership provides a challenge for all participants of sports as a goal worthy of attainment.

WHO'S WHO

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges is a publication of a standard directory and index of information sponsored by six hundred colleges and universities. Its purpose is to give national recognition to students of unusual abilities. Below are listed six McKendree seniors who will appear in the 1944-45 edition.

EDNA KAMPMEYER

Edna possesses a rare sense of responsibility and she has made a good scholastic record at McKendree. Her cooperative and friendly spirit will be greatly missed on the "Old Hill."

RUTH KOERBER

The quick wit and cheerful disposition of our McKendrean editor combine to make her a capable leader. She has proved herself to be a good student and dependable office assistant.

SHIRLEY BERGMAN

Shirley's quick smile and pleasing personality have won many friends for her at McKendree. She has been an excellent student and an outstanding leader during her three years on the campus.

FRANK SNYDER

We admire Frank, one of our older students, for returning to school to graduate while holding a full-time position. His ability in chemistry and mathematics is outstanding.

WILLIAM STALLINGS

The high scholastic record and fine leadership shown by Bill during his years on the "Old Hill" make the rest of us proud to call him a McKendrean.

NORMAN BAKER

Norman's cheerful smile and keen sense of humor make him a welcome addition to the McKendree family.

McKENDREAN-REVIEW STAFF

Throughout the year the Review and McKendrean staff have functioned in various ways. Not only did this staff publish the bi-weekly paper and this annual, but it sponsored a fall leaf-raking and the high school day in the spring.

Just as other groups, the staff operated under war-time difficulties. Much "midnight oil" was burned to complete copy for deadlines. Many afternoons were used for trips to St. Louis to arrange for printing and engraving.

After a year of presenting the current happenings on our campus, we offer this book as the culmination of our activities. The memories embodied in these pages will long serve to remind us of the "Old Hill" and those with whom we worked and played in '44-'45.

BASKETBALL LETTERMEN

Laurel Berger
(Forward) — Berger had the best free throw average on the team. Laurie was fastest on the first five, and perhaps the best "all around" player. He certainly snagged more than one rebound. Berger will be here next year to add his much-needed strength to the team.

Ira Thetford
Captain (Guard) — "Tiny," a two-year letterman, could always be depended upon to handle the ball well. He was calm and cool-headed on the floor, and was always under the basket for rebounds.

Gleason Lagow
(Forward)—Joe, small, but mighty, proved to be one of the Bearcats' best subs. He is one of the cleverest ball handlers on the team. Joe will be here next year to put the old "zip" on the ball.

Frank Harris
(Guard)—Frank did more than his share of rebounding. Many an opposing player will verify that. Harris handled the ball well, and could be depended upon to bring it across the line. He should be in there fighting next year.

Wesley Stelzriede
"Wes" could always be counted upon to put his best in a game. He always appeared calm and handled the ball well. He certainly snagged a great many rebounds and more than one of his well-placed shots helped to boost the score.

Don Broadway
(Forward)—Don was death on side shots. He added many a point to the team's score. His ball handling was excellent, and it was not uncommon to see him "break-through" and "loop" another in for the Bearcats.

Arthur Kleinschmidt
(Center)—Art, a second year letterman, the tallest on the team, used his height to great advantage. His rebounding ability was of great value to the team. He was one of the leading scorers, and was strictly a team man. He will be the main cog in the Bearcats' machine next year.

Louis Purcell
Although Purcell was a member of the Bearcats only in the early part of the season, he added many points to the score. Always under the basket for rebounds, and could be depended upon to handle the ball well. He was calm at all times.

Fred Brink

(Forward)—An excellent substitute, Fred, one of the fastest players on the floor, could be counted upon to put plenty of the "old drive" in the game. Brink should be an important cog in the Bearcat line-up next year.

CHRISTMAS AT HOME

On the 13th of December the "College Players" presented the one-act comedy, "Christmas at Home," in the Eisenmayer gymnasium. The plot revolves around the Burgess family the day before Christmas, preparing to spend their Christmas day without their son, Johnny, who is working in Chicago, and Grandpa, who had died the preceding summer. The typical family reactions are found: sixteen-year-old Julie falling in love for the first time; eighteen-year-old Emily receiving a proposal, and the twelve-year-old Janet discovering the real meaning of Christmas. The climax comes with the arrival of Johnny, who has been given the day off to spend Christmas at home. The play was directed by the Reverend F. C. Stelzriede.

McKendree's May Queen for 1945 was Ruth Mary Koerber of Arlington Heights, Illinois. Along with being May Queen, she held the position of editor of the McKendrean.

"Curb," who is a graduate of the class of '45, has taken part in many of the campus activities. Cooperation and cheerfulness are two of her attributes that rank her as a popular student on the "Old Hill."

Ruth was crowned during the May Fete by her Maid of Honor, Shirley Bergman

HOME-COMING QUEEN

"From freshman to senior, brunette to blonde, beauty to beauty, youth to youth, I present to you the Home-coming Queen, Ruth Cooper." Thus, as Ruth was handed the bouquet of roses, she was proclaimed the Home-coming Queen of 1944.

"Coopie" seems to be following in the footsteps of her big sister, Dolores, who was crowned queen in 1940. She is one of our Fine Arts students majoring in Voice.

Ruth has been active in extra-curricular activities.

CLASS HISTORIES

THE CLASS OF '45

The thirty-six members of our class who approached McKendree campus on September 7, 1942, were a distinguished looking group. Each was an individual in himself, and each had a different idea about college life.

We were all eager for a college education combined with a little fun to make our studying more interesting. We ate regularly at meals and traveled the P.C. Trail to town for our irregular meals. Our class is the last one to remember the old trail. It seems a pity, for it was such a short cut, especially when one was sipping a coke at Doc's when the bell rang for the next class.

The hayride was quite an event. Everyone wore old clothes and stuffed their pockets with three or four hot dogs. The "Y" Mixer proved to be quite a success, although there were several who had sore arms the next day because they shook too many hands. Then we had the Hallowe'en party in the gym.

The Conference at Alton was a big event. Everyone seemed to be in a gay mood that day. Miss Ridgway had a little difficulty in packing the car, but Clifford Brown came to the rescue.

Now let us turn the pages of our memory book until we reach our Freshman Picnic. It seemed we weren't successful in ringing the Chapel Bell, although "Bill" Stallings made a good attempt at it when he fell down the fire escape, trying to escape from the upperclassmen. On Initiation Night the girls had a little trouble too. Several jumped over Behymer's hedge in order to be hidden from the view of the upperclassmen who drove by in the college truck.

You ask about Home-coming? Of course, we were the first freshman class to start a tradition. We had the first Formal Freshman Chapel Program. The girls wore their lovely formals and the boys wore their best suits. We really tried to impress the upperclassmen. The next day, Plato and Philo played their last game, with a score of 50-33 in favor of Plato. Shirley Bergman was crowned Home-coming Queen at the game. Shirley was the first freshman ever to be crowned queen.

About this time some angels in Clark Hall had a hair-pulling and nail-scratching fight. Soda bottles were stacked against dorm doors, chewing gum was thrown freely and as a result, a few people changed their place of habitation.

Miss "D" had her trying moments with our class, but she seemed to keep us in hand by a persistent knocking on the steam pipes.

The war was in its prime while we were freshmen and I'm sure we all realized the fact. Our first blackout was an experience to remember. We sat calmly listening to the roar of airplane motors overhead while all lights were extinguished. The Beechnut Buddies serenaded us with Christmas carols and "My Gal Sal."

The kitchen force was a very prominent crew. Each was bestowed with a different talent and each tried to portray his talents on the food. They seemed to work well together, for I remember only a few fights. However, when things became too wild the pantry was the best place in which to lock them.

Then came Senior Day, when two boys with tear-stained cheeks and faltering steps marched down the aisle and presented the school with two beautiful flags. With this memory is linked the memory of the dedication of the service flag, and the song, "My Buddy." These were just two sad incidents that have made up our war-time education.

Oh yes, how could we ever forget those summer courses and the way we used to slave over those hard subjects with perspiration trickling down our brow? However, when Preachers School and Institute came around it was sweat that flowed from our brow. It was during summer school that we all witnessed the experience with the soldier who was supposed to have been a mental case who escaped from Scott Field. A suggestion was made to have the Carnegie Hall boys protect us, but the girls decided they could take care of themselves if all windows and doors were locked and beds moved to third floor. It was the same summer we had so much trouble over the water cooler.

Our class has been scattered to the four corners of the earth because of the war and the accelerated program. There will be only fifteen members wearing caps and gowns and receiving their degrees on Commencement Day.

We have learned a great deal from Old McK. We have learned how to live and, most of all, how to appreciate a college degree.

THE CLASS OF '46

We registered at McKendree College, as the class of '46, one bright, sunny morning in September, 1942—a very scared group of young people. Yes, we all lived in mortal terror until that frightful day of initiation was over. For us, it was either a lovely baptism in the beautiful lagoon on McKendree's back campus, or a very refreshing, brisk walk 'neath the stars to the college, from some unspecified point in Illinois. A few unfortunates suffered both. However, initiation rules did not bother us. To be truthful, we were quite proud to don the green caps. Most of us actually submitted to initiation quite peacefully.

Admittedly, a year or two of college provides one with the knack of improving on unpromising material, and so, notwithstanding the few authentic scrimmages with the gentlemen (and ladies) of the three wiser years, we, of late, find ourselves relating to the new and unsuspecting freshmen just how successful we were in our vicious and recalcitrant attitude to any and all things related to the upperclassmen and initiation.

Like all war classes, ours is not an exception, for through the weeks, months, and even years, many members of the class of '46 heeded the call of war. Today they may be found on any far-flung battlefield. Some were claimed by war, and sleep the eternal sleep. It is to them that we especially dedicate our undying thanks; for them our pride knows no bounds. With us they shall tread the Centennial path in caps and gowns.

The class of '46 is a proud class, indeed. We feel quite assured that it will provide another strong link in the long chain of McKendree years.

THE CLASS OF '47

Though ours is one of the smallest classes to enroll in McK. during this wartime period, we have, nevertheless, filled our position in the campus activities. Starting with only twenty-five members we proceeded to fit our lives into the college program.

Our picnic was the usual failure, but we enjoyed our rations (three or four potato chips and a quarter of a cup-cake are rations, aren't they?) free from molesting upperclassmen.

A class of '47 skating party for the school has come to be a tradition.

Most of our class has taken advantage of the accelerated program offered by the school. We leave these two years behind, not forgetting "the dean's" English Comp. class, Mode and Pete taking top honors in the "Dorris," midnight snacks, and the biology trip to Missouri. Memories of the past make goals for the future. We're proud of McK. and hope we can make her proud of us.

THE CLASS OF '48

When we, the class of '48, enrolled as freshmen at McKendree College last September, we were just as green and scared as the average freshmen.

With green hats flying, we were chased many miles before dodging the upperclassmen during our initiation—a night long to be remembered by us all.

Our officers for the year were Don Broadway, president; Eunice Hanbaum, vice-president; and Elizabeth Crisp, secretary-treasurer.

We are justly proud of our Freshman Basketball Team, for they remained undefeated throughout the entire season. Also, we displayed our talents at the annual Formal Freshman Chapel Program.

We, the Freshman Class, have enjoyed this year on the "Old Hill" and are eagerly looking forward to three more years at McKendree.
